WILL REPLY TO WILSON

Teddy Prepares Paper Showing Fallacy of Governor's Position.

Oyster Bay, Nov. 1.—Colonel Roosevelt began today the preparation of a reply to Governor Wilson's speech at Madison Square Garden last night. The colonel sent to Progressive headquarters in New York for information which he desired and a messenger was dispatched thence to Oyster Bay. Colonel Roosevelt said he would take up Governor Wilson's attitude toward the trusts in a statement, perhaps tomorrow.

CALEDONIANS ENJOY A SOCIAL

One of the most successful and unique social events of the season was the Caledonian celebration of Halloween held in the Reese Howell hall on Washington avenue last night by the Caledonian society. The hall was decorated in true Halloween style and made a gay picture when filled with men and women in Scotch costumes. An orchestra, together with bagpipes played during the evening and added to the enjoyment. Every detail of the program was carried out to remind the visitors of the manners and customs of Scotland.

Chief James Drysdale gave the address of welcome in true patriotic style. He said: "Ladies and Gentlemen: As chief of the Caledonian society it becomes my pleasant duty to bid you welcome to our new home. For years the Scotch people have met from time to time to celebrate the festivities and especially Halloween, which is of a joyful nature. The Caledonians of Ogden have started out with the desire to have a permanent home for all the Scotch and to establish a permanent organization. Lately a movement has been started to have all Scotch societies united and the Salt Lake and Ogden Caledonian societies already have united in a federation the purpose of which is to bring all the Scotch men and Scotch women into bonds of unity, to perpetuate and emulate the great men of bonnie Scotland, who in all parts of the world have done so much for liberty, science and the betterment of the human race, and last, but not least, to offer protection to its members in time of need and at their demise by paying a suitable insurance. Therefore, I take this occasion to appeal to every Scotchman and Scotchwoman, born or of descent to become a member. We have secured these rooms for our permanent headquarters and we shall soon have them suitably furnished. We purpose during the winter months to have many socials. We extend to you an invitation to join us in these socials. I thank you most heartily for your generous response to our appeal, and especially to those who have made and donated so generously for the success of our celebration. We have a varied program and we will try to entertain and meet you in a way that you will not forget the Caledonians. Welcome, friends, to the Caledonian home. Ladies and gentlemen, I thank you."

Cyrus Charles had charge of the decorating of the hall and the preparing of the banquet and he received much praise for his work, one of the officers of the Caledonians stating that the success of the evening's entertainment was largely due to his efforts. A banquet of Scotch dishes, including all the famous ones, was served and, at the conclusion of the program, dancing took up the remaining hours. The program as given was as follows:

Music, orchestra.
Address of welcome, Chief James Drysdale.
Vocal solo, William Jack.
Piano solo, Miss Bernice Glacier.
Music, Imperial quartette.
Comic selections, W. N. Purdie.
Vocal solo, Miss Jennie Thorntsen.
Recitation, Will Kenley.
Recitation, Miss Belle Henderson.
Vocal solo, Miss Kate Blythe.

GLADDEN IS OUT FOR ROOSEVELT

The Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden in a written statement recently created general surprise by announcing his intention to vote for Colonel Roosevelt principally because of his policy with reference to the trusts. He has been regarded as a Wilson supporter although he has voted for every Republican candidate for president since Lincoln. He says he never will vote for another Republican presidential candidate.

The Chicago convention of last June he declares committed a "flagrant offense" in "trampling under foot the mandate of the people expressed in presidential primaries" and "the party which perpetrated it has outlived its usefulness."

The Rev. Dr. Gladden says he had intended to support Wilson, but he finds "most of the men and women by whose side I have been working for the last quarter of a century in the Progressive party." Continuing, he says in part:

"The platform of that party also embodies most of the things that I have been standing for, to a far greater extent than any political confession of faith hitherto promulgated it expresses the purposes by which my life has been guided. With respect to the probable treatment of the tariff, the difference between the Progressive party and the Democratic party does not seem to me important. Upon the trust question the policy of the Progressive party commends itself to me more strongly than that of the Democratic party. The Democratic party proposes to maintain and enforce competition by judicial process. The Progressive party proposes to supervise and control combinations of capital by an administrative commission. The one looks toward dissolution of the trusts, the other toward their regulation by stringent laws, enforced by an executive commission.

"Clearly such a portentous monopoly as the steel trust, or the sugar trust cannot be permitted to flourish unrestrained, and the formation of such trusts ought to be rigidly supervised by the government. Equally certain is it that when they begin to assume the character of a monopoly they should pass immediately into the possession or under the control of the government."

LUNCHEON AT THE ACADEMY

A luncheon was given to Principal and Mrs. W. W. Henderson and the members of the third-year class in domestic science, by Miss Helen Taylor and Miss Alice Volker, under the direction of Miss Pearl Cragun, at the Weber academy, yesterday. The following menu was served: Blackberry cocktail, with orange cubes, chicken patties, cream potatoes, yellow sauce, carrots, hot rolls, currant jelly, chocolate, nut and cherry salad, nabiscos, orange sherbet, sunrise cake and mints.

Everything, including the candy, was made by the girls themselves in less than one hour and a half. The total cost of the luncheon was less than twenty cents per plate.

These luncheons are arranged at regular intervals, and each luncheon is planned and arranged by two girls from the domestic science department, under the direction of Miss Pearl Cragun. The young ladies are limited to a stipulated amount and the students vie with each other as to who will make the best showing.

There will be plenty of doing, don't miss it. (Advertisement)

ED TOTTEY IS PURSUED BY MISFORTUNE

Edward Tottey, the husband of the woman wrestler and the man who tried to kill himself by cutting his throat after he had attempted to kill his wife was taken to the Dee hospital yesterday after being out only two weeks.

Since leaving the hospital he has been working in the Southern Pacific shops in Ogden and yesterday had two ribs fractured while working at a lathe. He was holding the handle of the machine when a back in the machinery threw him against the frame-work. Other employees came to his aid and he was made comfortable until the arrival of the ambulance.

While the injury is painful, it is not of a serious nature and Tottey will be out again in a short time.

While working in the shops he went under the name of Percy Dawson.

WANTS AN AVENUE OPENED BY CITY

After stating that his company owned sixty-nine lots in the Rushton addition on Oak avenue, T. H. Shaver, vice president of the People's Savings bank of Cedar Rapids, Ia., petitioned the city commissioners to open up the street. In a lengthy communication, he says the street has been equipped with sewers and some of the lots assessed for sidewalk abutting the avenue. He states the street is in bad condition and has not been opened up; that there is no bridge across the irrigation ditch, and the manholes are two and three feet above the grade.

As the company wishes to sell their lots, he asks that the street be graded and opened.

The matter was referred to the superintendent of streets and public improvements.

By purchasing the new automobile fire engine after the Denver fire show, the city saved $400 on the purchase price. The original price was $6,600 but the bill paid last night was for $5,600.

SMOKER OF W.O.W. IS A BIG SUCCESS

With fully 225 members attending, the initial smoker given by the Weber camp No. 74, Woodmen of the World was a huge success. The affair was held in the Knights of Pythias hall and an excellent program was carried out. Wrestling matches between Harbertson and Ferguson, and Freshaw and Gelpap together with a five-round boxing exhibition between Fry Turner and Rudolph Kileman of Milwaukee formed the pastime for the opening event. Hereafter the members will hold a social each month during the coming winter season.

CONFESS TO THE MURDER

Conways Admit Killing Sophia Singer For Her Money

Chicago, Nov. 1.—"You know you did it. You both did it. You know you killed my Sophia," shouted William Worthen, fiancé of Miss Sophia G. Singer of Baltimore, the heiress found slain in a rooming house here when he confronted Charles N. Conway and wife, vaudeville performers, in the police station here today. The Conways were arrested last night at Lima, Ohio. Mrs. Conway cried aloud and became hysterical, shouting wildly:

"It's not so, it's not so! You know you killed her yourself!"

"His continued several minutes, the police interfering."

Meanwhile the police questioned Worthen and the Conways closely without result.

Later a police official said Mrs. Conway had confessed.

"She has owned up to the murder," said he, "but says she had little to do with it."

"She says that Conway knocked the Singer girl down with a billie made of a door knob in a handkerchief, with a shoe lace as a handle, with the intention of robbing the heiress."

"We thought she had more money than she did," she said. "Charlie did it. All I did was to throw the blanket over her when we left. I didn't think she was dead."

The Conway woman then told the officials, she announced, that she would tell the whole story.

Worthen, held by the police pending clearing up of the mystery, though they accepted his story of innocence, became hysterical with joy when the news was taken to him.

"Thank God they have confessed," he shouted.
